Description:

"Conversations with Female Millionaires", co-authored by Rachel D. Young and Jason Oman, features business-minded women who've made their own dreams and fortunes a reality and who are now sharing their advice and experiences with other women. Few of these entrepreneurial women were born with a silver spoon in their mouths. In fact, all of the powerful women showcased in this book created their own success from little more than a dream and a goal. An exciting read for anyone (man or woman) who has dared to dream bigger than their current surroundings!

Great book! Just what I needed to boost me to the next level in my business. It hit on all my reservations. Time to accelerate. Thanks!
